

Significant Controllers Register in Hong Kong

The Ordinance 2018 (“the Amendment Ordinance”) introduced new requirements on the keeping of significant controllers registers by the Hong Kong companies.

From 1 March 2018 all incorporated company (except listed companies) in Hong Kong must identify people or entities that have significant control over the company and to maintain a significant controllers register (SCR).The register will accessible to Hong Kong authorities.